At Your Library... This Summer!

Summer Reading 2011 Guest Lineup

Program Times: 10 a.m., 1p.m., and 3 p.m.

June 7 & 8

Kentucky Down Under

Have you ever met a kangaroo? Have you ever heard a didgeridoo? Come visit the Land Down Under for a unique opportunity to learn about Australia's history, culture, and animals.

June 14 & 15

The Zinghoppers

If you're a parent of a preschooler you need to know about "The Zinghopper Show"! From the classroom to the Kennedy Center, "The Zinghoppers Show" was named "Nashville's #1 Kid's Act" in 2009 and 2010 by Parent Magazine. Our event will feature a star from the award-winning public television show singing fun, engaging songs. After the show, kids can meet this character. So get ready to let the beat rock with "The Zinghopper Show" for a zingtastic, hopariffic, happy dance party!

June 21 & 22

Global Safari with Vikki Gasko

Features larger than life animals and creatures from around the world that are brought to life through Vikki's incredible ventriloquism talents.

June 28 & 29

Market House Theatre

The Story Theatre Troupe presents “Little Red Riding Hood”, a classic tale told in many cultures throughout the world. This fast paced and hilarious show features lots of audience participation.

July 12 & 13

Troy Roark– Worlds of Water

Make a splash at your library. This program will be held outside in the garden area. This program has water, so bring your swimsuit and towels if you want to get wet! (There will be an area available for staying dry.)

One World, Many Stories
